September Vestry Meeting Summary

Susan Shultz

Senior Warden - Charles has renewed his contract with us for another year. The Harvest Festival was a great success. The Thanksgiving Ecumenical service will be held on Tuesday, Nov 20 at Christ and The Epiphany.

Building & Grounds - The Boy Scouts annual food drive and the Trolley Museum annual meeting will both happen on Nov 10. Grateful thanks to all who are helping with chores around the building.

Outreach & Mission - We are ending our work with Midnight Run. There was some concern about the new procedures for distributing food and lack of organization. Instead we will be working with the Backpack program sponsored by the East Haven Food Pantry. This program gives backpacks of non-perishable food to students who might not otherwise eat over the weekend.

Communications - Remember the Blessing of the Animals on Sunday September 30th.

Senior Warden

Barbara Parsons

A busy September is upon us. Our Harvest Festival was a great success. It was a time of fun, fellowship & an opportunity to share God's love with those we served. Our hike with Rachael was somewhat challenging, but gave us an opportunity to show her our building & hear about the outreach that we do here. Charles has renewed his contract for another year. He was given a 1.9% COLA raise that the Diocese required, but unselfishly he did not want any additional raise.

We have decided to end our relationship with Midnight Run. The teams have expressed some concerns regarding how the food is distributed & the lack of organization in recent months. We have decided to support the Backpack Program that is sponsored by the Food Pantry. We will be meeting for the first time on Sept 26th at 5:15 in the Great Hall. Come & join us! More details to come. Looking forward to the coming months as we seek God's will in this place.

God's Peace to all
Barbara

East Haven United Update

East Haven minutes from Sept 13, 2018
We discussed the Ecumenical Service to be held at Christ and The Epiphany Church on Nov. 20, 2018. It was suggested that Deacon Wayne Sandford help organize the agenda which he graciously accepted. The Garden at Old Stone Church was discussed briefly as moving forward with the help of Ned Taylor and the Boy Scouts working on their Eagle Scout Project. The book Seed Folks was brought up and passed around by Sister Barbara which is an easy read but shows how groups come together for a cause. Our Community Kitchen is doing well but always in need of volunteers and seems to be the main project of EHU. We want to reach out more in the community, but we seem to be lacking guidance at the top since Father Tom and Rev. Karen has left. We are looking for ideas and more participation of members as to where this group should be heading and where we can spread the love when turmoil hits in our community and even when it doesn't. We will have a table at the Health Fair at the Library Sept 29, 2018 from 9-21. If anyone has the EHU banner, please get it to Jan Cianelli 203-530-9840 so we can have some exposure. Also, if you would like to sit at table please show up. Thanks in advance. Our next meeting will be Oct 4 at 7:00 at Christ and The Epiphany Church. Hope to see you there! Respectfully Jan Cianelli.

Christ and The Epiphany 39 Park Place (on the Green) East Haven, CT 06512 Building and Grounds Sept 2018 Report I have to Thank everyone for pitching in to maintain our building of Worship and Community Service! Without all you do we would not be able to succeed! I was asked if AWOL (A Way of Life) could use the building on Sunday evenings from 7-8:30 starting Oct 1 for a 39-step program affiliated with AA at $100 a month! I told him I would have to get approval from Vestry as I wasn't sure about price! Oct 28 the Hall is rented for a Birthday Party and the Trolley Museum will be here Sat Nov 10 from 2:30-8:00, Boy Scouts will be delivering Food for the Food Pantry starting at 2 on Nov 10! Ecumenical Service will be Here Tuesday Nov 20!

St Clare's hosted last year with a reception that followed so help will be need for the reception! It didn't name names of everyone that has stepped up to go above and beyond duties but it shows and you know who you are! - Janet
